Within 5 days from the date when the claim was submitted to the Audit Committee, Company Auditor or shareholders (shareholder) owning not less than 10 % of voting shares to call an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors shall make decision to call for an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or to reject this request.

Decision of the Board of Directors to call for an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or motivated reject shall be delivered to persons who brought the request not later than in 3 days after decision was adopted. If a request to call for an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders was received by the Company from the persons who are not registered in the shareholders register and accordingly instructed the person who accounts their rights to shares, the mentioned decision of the Board of Directors shall be sent to such persons within 3 days from the date of its adoption in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation on securities to provide information and materials to the persons exercising their rights to securities.

Decision on refusal to call for an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders brought by the Audit Committee, Company Auditor or shareholders (shareholder) owning not less than 10 % of voting shares shall be made only due to reasons specified in the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”.

13.24. An extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders called on request brought by the Audit Committee, Company Auditor or shareholder(s) in possession of not less than 10 % of voting shares should be conducted within 40 days from the date of bringing request to call such extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

For the purposes of this Clause the date of bringing request to call an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders is the date when such request was received by the Company.

13.25. In case when under Articles 68 – 70 of the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies” the Board of Directors shall call an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders such General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held within 40 days from the date when the Board of Directors made respective decision.

13.26. If the Board of Directors fails to call an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or refuses to call an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders within the period established by the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies”, the body of the Company or individuals requesting such convocation may appeal to the court in order to compel the Company to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

Thereat, the body of the Company or the individuals that in compliance with the court judgment carry out an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall enjoy all the powers provided for in the Federal Law “On Joint Stock Companies” and necessary to convene and conduct the General Meeting of Shareholders.

In the event that in accordance with the court judgment an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders is carried out by the plaintiff, the expenses incurred in the preparation for and carrying-out of such General Meeting may be reimbursed out of the funds of the Company by decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

13.27. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be considered as qualified (having the quorum) if participating shareholders own in total more than half of the votes represented by issued Company voting shares.

Shareholders who have registered for participation in the Meeting not later than 2 days before the Meeting are considered participants of the General Meeting of Shareholders. Registration shall include electronic registration on the website specified in the respective notification of the meeting within the specified period. Shareholders who sent voting papers or filled in electronic voting papers on the website specified in the respective notification of the Meeting within the specified period are considered participants of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Shareholders who sent voting papers or filled in electronic voting papers on the website specified in the respective notification of the Meeting before the due date are considered participants of the General

Meeting of Shareholders held in the form of absentee voting.

Shareholders who, in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation on securities, instructed the persons accounting their rights to shares on voting are considered participants of the General Meeting of Shareholders if their declaration messages were received no later than 2 days before the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders or before expiry of the time limit for accepting votes for the General Meeting of Shareholders held in the form of absentee voting.

13.28. If the annual General Meeting of Shareholders fails to have the quorum the Company shall arrange another General Meeting of Shareholders with the same agenda. If an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders fails to have the quorum another General Meeting of Shareholders with the same agenda may be held.

General Meeting of Shareholders shall be considered as qualified (having the quorum) if participating shareholders own in total not less than 30 % of votes represented by placed voting shares of the Company.

13.29. Voting on the issues of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, as well as voting on the issues of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders held in the form of absentee voting, shall be carried out by voting papers.

Vote by voting papers shall be equal to receipt by the Registrar of the proposals from the persons who have the right to participate in the Meeting, but are not registered in the shareholders register and accordingly instructed the person who accounts their rights to shares on voting (in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation on securities).

13.30. If the General Meeting of Shareholders is held in the form of absentee voting, the voting papers shall be delivered against a receipt signed by each person included in the register of shareholders with a right to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders not later than 20 days before the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

13.31. Voting papers shall be sent by registered mail.

In case the General Meeting of Shareholders is held in person, the persons listed as the persons entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders (or their representatives) shall be entitled to attend the Meeting or send filled-in voting papers to the Company. Shareholders may fill in electronic voting papers on the website specified in the notification of the General Meeting of Shareholders during the General Meeting of Shareholders, unless they exercise their right to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders otherwise. Date and time when electronic voting papers are filled in on the website are registered.

13.32. Voting paper shall include information stipulated in Article 60(5) of the Federal Law "On Joint Stock Companies". Voting papers may include additional information as determined by the Board of Directors at the moment of approval of its form and content.

13.33. In case of absentee voting only those votes shall be counted for which the voter identified only one possible option for each issue at question. Voting papers completed in violation of this requirement shall be invalidated and votes contained therein shall be not counted.

If the issue specified in voting papers includes more than one option indicating a 'yes' decision and if such is selected more than once, the voting paper shall be considered void.

In voting for approval of the Company Auditor if more than one candidate is selected, the voting paper shall be considered void.

In electing the Audit Committee if the number of 'pro' answers exceeds the number of vacancies, the voting paper shall be void.

If during election of the Board of Directors done through cumulative voting a shareholder distributes more votes than there are in his/her possession among the candidates, the voting paper shall be considered void.

If the voting paper contains several questions submitted for voting, the failure to observe requirements mentioned above in respect of one or several issues shall not render the entire voting paper void.

If the voting paper prevents identification of the person (shareholder or representative of the shareholder) who voted by the voting paper in question, the votes shall not be taken into consideration when counting votes.

13.34. Whereas the General Meeting of Shareholders was held through absentee voting, voting papers received by the Company after expiration of the time limit designated for receipt of voting papers shall be considered void.

If a voting paper is considered void, the votes in the voting paper in question shall not be taken into consideration when counting votes.
