3.4. The matters within the competence of the Board of Directors may not be referred to executive bodies of the Company for resolution.

4. BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND ITS FORMATION

4.1. All members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be determined by resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders but shall not be less than seven (7) members for the term until the next annual General Meeting of Shareholders. Members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by a cumulative vote. Those nominees who get the most votes shall be deemed elected to the Board of Directors.

If an annual General Meeting of Shareholders is not held within the time-limits set forth in Article 47 (1) of the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies”, the powers of the Board of Directors shall be terminated except for the authority to prepare, convene and hold the annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

In case of expiry of the term of the Board of Directors, and the failure of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders to elect members of the Board of Directors in the number constituting a quorum for holding a meeting of the Board of Directors, the powers of the Board of Directors shall be terminated except for the authority to prepare, convene and hold the General Meeting of Shareholders.

4.2. A member of the Board of Directors may not be a Company shareholder. Only a natural person may be a member of the Board of Directors.

4.3. The composition of the Board of Directors must include persons, each of whom possesses sufficient independence for forming his own position and is capable of making objective judgments, independent of the influence of the executive bodies of the Company, individual groups of shareholders, or other interested persons, and also possesses a sufficient degree of professionalism and experience (the “independent director”). The number of independent directors must amount to no less than one third of the composition of the Board of Directors and must be no less than three:

A member of the Board of Directors may not be an independent director, if he/she is connected with:

- the Company;

- a substantial shareholder of the Company;
- a substantial contractor of the Company;
- a competitor of the Company;
- the state or municipality.

Independence of members of the Board of Directors is identified in accordance with independence criteria for members of the Board of Directors provided in Appendix hereto (the “Criteria”).

4.4. The Board of Directors upon assistance of the HR and Compensations Committee evaluates adherence to the Criteria in relation to nominees for the Board of Directors, and analyzes on a regular basis adherence of independent members of the Board of Directors to the Criteria at least on an annual basis.

4.5. In some exceptional cases, the Board of Directors may upon evaluation recognize any member of the Board of Directors (nominee for the Board of Directors) to be independent even if he/she has any formal criteria of affiliation with the Company, a substantial shareholder of the Company, a counterparty of the Company, a competitor of the Company, the State or municipality, if such affiliation does not affect relevant person’s ability to make independent, objective and honest judgments.

4.6. A member of the Board of Directors elected as an independent director in case of an event resulting in his/her or his/her affiliates’ failure to comply with the Criteria shall announce the loss of independent director’s status within three (3) business upon loss of such status. The Board of Directors shall ensure immediate disclosure of information about any circumstances due to which any member of the Board of Directors is no more independent.

4.7. A member of the Board of Directors may at any time voluntarily resign upon written notification to the Board of Directors indicating the date of resignation.

4.8. The General Meeting of Shareholders may at any time adopt a resolution on early termination of powers of the whole Board of Directors and election of a new Board of Directors.

In case of early termination of powers of the Board of Directors, the powers of the new Board of Directors elected by an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall continue effective until the next annual General Meeting of Shareholders.

If the number of members of the Board of Directors becomes less than the quorum required by the Charter for its decision-making the Board of Directors must decide to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a new Board of Directors. The remaining members of the Board of Directors have the right to decide only on the convocation of such extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

4.9. Persons elected to the Board of Directors may be re-elected an unlimited number of times.

4.10. The shareholder(s) of the Company holding a total of at least 2 percent of the Company's voting shares may, within no more than 60 days after the end of the reporting year of the Company, nominate candidates to the Board of Directors whose number may not exceed the number of members of the Board of Directors.

For making shareholders' proposals on nominating candidates to the Board of Directors of the Company including self-nomination, the application shall specify the full name, ID data (series and/or number of document, date and place of issue, issuer) of each nominee, year of birth, education (specifying the educational institution graduated), information on positions, including positions with management bodies of other legal entities for the last five (5) years, and contact details. A written consent of the candidates nominated to the Board of Directors shall be attached to the application.

Proposals on nominees shall be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Board of Directors or Corporate Secretary specifying the name of the shareholder(s) submitting them and the quantity and category (type) of the shares owned. The proposals shall be signed by the shareholder(s) or their representatives.

The shareholder(s) of the Company not registered in the Company's shareholders register may also submit proposals to the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and proposals on nomination of candidates by giving appropriate instructions to a person who takes into account their rights to shares. Such instructions shall be given in accordance with the securities laws of the Russian Federation.

4.11. The Board of Directors of the Company shall review the proposals received and adopt a decision on inclusion of the candidates in the list of nominees for election to the Board of Directors or refusal no later than 65 days from the end of the reporting year.

A motivated decision of the Board of Directors to refuse to include candidates in the nominees' list for election to the Board of Directors shall be sent to the shareholder(s) submitting the proposal no later than 3 (three) days of taking the decision.

If such proposals are received by the Company from persons not registered in the shareholders register of the Company and giving the instruction to a person who keeps records of their rights to shares, such decision of the Board of Directors shall be sent to such persons latest within 3 days upon adoption thereof in accordance with the securities laws of the Russian Federation for the provision of information and materials to persons exercising their rights with respect to securities.

4.12. In case of absence or insufficient number of candidates nominated by shareholders to the Board of Director, the Board of Directors may include candidates in the nominees' list at its option.

5. RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5.1. When exercising their rights and performing their duties, the members of the Board of Directors shall act for the benefit of the Company, exercise their rights and perform their duties with respect to the Company reasonably and in good faith.

5.2. Any member of the Board of Directors shall:

- take part in the meetings of the Board of Directors and Board committees, in particular, in discussions of agenda items at meetings of the Board of Directors and voting on such items;
- act within his/her powers in accordance with the goals and objectives of the Board of Directors;

- inform the Company, by submitting notification to the Company within ten (10) days from the date of the corresponding operation, on holding of the Company's securities, on operations performed with the Company's securities and on conclusion of contracts representing derivative securities with the Company's securities as underlying asset;
- inform the Board of Directors about proposed transactions in which he/she may be deemed an interested party;
- refrain from any action which will, or may potentially, result in a conflict between their interests and those of the Company, and in case of any conflict, inform the Board of Directors in writing about such conflict;
- inform the Board of Directors of legal entities in the management bodies of which he/she occupies a position and/or is an employee, and/or legal entities to which he/she renders consultation services (services of an appraiser, tax consultant, auditing or accounting services);
- not accept gifts from parties interested in decisions making, as well as not to use any direct or indirect benefit provided by the parties interested (excluding symbolic courtesies in accordance with the generally accepted rules of politeness or souvenirs at official events);

- commit no actions knowingly aimed at causing harm to the Company.

5.3. A member of the Board of Directors may:

- participate in taking decisions on issues related to the competence of the Board of Directors and introduce proposals regarding the Company's activities at the meetings of the Board of Directors within the competence determined by the existing laws of the Russian Federation, the Charter and this Regulation. In case of their disagreement with any decision taken he/she may submit his/her dissenting opinion and demand that it should be attached to the minutes;
- receive from the Company's officers in due order additional information required for taking decisions with respect to agenda items of the meeting of the Board of Directors. Officials of the Company shall be liable for failure to submit such information;
- demand to convene a meeting of the Board of Directors;
- receive remuneration and compensation for performing his/her responsibilities under the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders and pursuant to the procedure set forth by this Regulation;
- at any time voluntarily resign upon written notification to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

6. CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

6.1. The Board of Directors is headed by the Chairman.

6.2. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall organize the effective work of the Board of Directors and its cooperation with other bodies of the Company.

6.3. Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected by the members of the Board of Directors from its members by a majority of votes of the total number of the members of the Board of Directors, with the votes of retired members of the Board of Directors disregarded.

6.4. The person performing the functions of the sole executive body of the Company may not simultaneously be Chairman of the Board of Directors.

6.5. The Board of Directors may at any time re-elect its Chairman. The decision shall be adopted by a majority of votes of the total number of the members of the Board of Directors, with the votes of retired members of the Board of Directors disregarded.

6.6. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall organize its work, convene meetings of the Board of Directors, chair thereat and arrange the minutes thereof.

6.7. In the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, his/her functions shall be performed by a member of the Board of Directors by decision of the Board of Directors.

6.8. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall ensure efficient operation of the committees of the Board of Directors, in particular take the initiative to nominate members of the Board of Directors for the committees of Board of Directors based on their professional and personal skills and taking into account proposals of the Board of Directors on formation of the committees.

6.9. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall maintain regular contacts with other bodies and officials of the Company in order to obtain as complete and as accurate information as possible that is necessary for the Board of Directors to take decisions, and take all necessary measures to promptly provide the members of the Board of Directors with information necessary to take decisions on the agenda.

6.10. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may sign:

- employment agreement (contract) with the Chief Executive Officer;

Decisions shall be adopted by the meeting of the Board of Directors by a majority of votes of the members of the Board of Directors taking part in the meeting (absentee vote) unless a bigger number of votes is stipulated by the Charter of the Company or the Federal Law “On Joint-Stock Companies” for adopting relevant decisions.

8.13. Decisions on the following matters shall be adopted unanimously by all members of the Board of Directors:

- Increase in the authorized capital of the Company by means of placing additional shares within the quantity and categories (types) of authorized shares using the Company’s assets when placement of additional shares is carried out through their purchase by the shareholders.
- Increase in the Company’s authorized capital by means of placing ordinary shares within the quantity and categories (types) by open subscription in the amount of 25 and less percent of the previously placed ordinary shares of the Company.

- Increase in the Company's authorized capital by means of placing additional preferred shares within the quantity of authorized shares of this category (type) by open subscription.
- Placement by the Company of bonds convertible into shares and other securities convertible into shares.
- Consent to or subsequent approval of major transactions in the case provided for in Article 79 of the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

If no unanimity of the Board of Directors is reached with respect to the above matters, the matters may be resolved by General Meeting of Shareholders.

Decisions on issues stated in Clause 3.3, Subclauses 3.3.1, 3.3.15, 3.3.21, 3.3.31-3.3.32, 3.3.43.1-3.3.43.11, 3.3.44, 3.3.49-3.3.52 hereof shall be taken by the majority of votes of all elected members of the Board of Directors.

Interested party transaction requires mandatory prior consent.

The decision concerning the consent to or subsequent approval of an interested party transaction shall be adopted by the Board of Directors by a majority of the votes of the directors who are not interested in it, who are not and have not been within one year preceding such decision:

- the Chief Executive Officer – Chairman of the Executive Committee, member of the Executive Committee of the Company;
- the person controlling the Company or entitled to give mandatory instructions to the Company.

If the number of directors not interested in the transaction and meeting the requirements established by this paragraph hereof becomes less than two directors (a quorum for holding a meeting of the Board of Directors on this issue), such transaction shall require the consent of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

8.14. For approval of the terms and conditions of contract with the Chief Executive Officer (management entity/manager) and members of the Executive Board, the votes cast by members of the Board of Directors who are Chief Executive Officer and members of the Executive Board shall not be taken into account.

8.15. Each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote at the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Vote transfer by a member of the Board of Directors to another person, including another member of the Board of Directors shall not be allowed.

In case the number of votes of the members of the Board of Directors is equal, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall have a decisive vote.

8.16. For determining the quorum and voting results with respect to items on the agenda, a written opinion of the member of the Board of Directors absent from the Meeting of the Board of Directors shall be considered for the meetings held in the forms specified in Subclauses 8.3.1, 8.3.2 hereof.

8.17. A written opinion of the member of the Board of Directors shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors before the meeting of the Board of Directors, e.g. by means of telephone or electronic communication. The written opinion of a Board Member may contain his/her voting both on all items on the agenda and particular items. The written opinion of a member of the Board of Directors shall be considered only for determining the quorum and the voting results with respect to agenda items voted by the member of the Board of Directors.

If a copy of the written opinion of a member of the Board of Directors was not included in the information (materials) distributed to the members of the Board of Directors prior to the meeting, the Chairman of the Meeting shall announce the written opinion of the member of the Board of Directors absent from the meeting of the Board of Directors before voting on the agenda items regarding which the opinion was submitted.

In case the member of the Board of Directors is attending the meeting of the Board of Directors, his/her written opinion received prior to the meeting shall not be announced and considered for determining the quorum and the voting results.

8.18. The decisions of the Board of Directors made within its competence shall be binding on the executive bodies and officials of the Company.

8.19. The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be prepared no later than within three (3) days after the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting shall specify: venue and time of the meeting; persons attending the meeting; meeting agenda; items put to vote and voting results; decisions taken.

The minutes shall be signed by Chairman of the Board of Directors or the meeting chair elected by a simple majority of the votes of the members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting, and two members of the Board of Directors, named by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

8.20. Minutes shall be numbered consecutively from the beginning of the reporting year.

Completed and signed minutes shall be kept at the premises of the CEO.

8.21. The Chief Executive Officer shall provide for the necessary conditions for the performance by the Board of Directors of its functions, including providing premises with modern communication devices, access to copying, reproduction and computer equipment.

9. LIABILITY OF THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

9.1. When exercising their rights and performing their duties, the members of the Board of Directors shall act for the benefit of the Company, exercise their rights and perform their duties with respect to the Company reasonably and in good faith.

9.2. The members of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be held liable:

- to the Company for damages caused by the Company by their guilty actions (inactivity) unless other grounds and liability amount are established by federal laws;
- to the Company or shareholders for damages caused by their guilty actions (inactivity) violating the Company's share acquisition procedure established by the Federal Law "On Joint-Stock Companies".

However, no liability shall be incurred by the Members of the Board of Directors who voted against a decision that resulted in damages upon the Company, or those who did not take part in the vote.

9.3. Members of the Board of Directors shall be liable to the Company or shareholders for damages caused to the Company as a result of disclosing or using for personal interest or third parties' interest the confidential information of the Company. The list of the confidential information shall be identified by internal documents of the Company to be read, understood and signed by the Members of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors must sign an agreement with the Company not to disclose confidential information that he/she becomes aware of in connection with the performance of functions of the member of the Board of Directors.

10. REMUNERATIONS AND COMPENSATIONS FOR THE MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

10.1. In accordance with the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, members of the Board of Directors, for the period of performing their duties, may be remunerated and/or compensated for expenses associated with performing duties of members of the Board of Directors. Amounts of these rewards and compensations shall be established by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

10.2. During the period of performing their duties the members of the Board of Directors shall be compensated for their expenses documented in accordance with the laws of the Russian Federation and related to the performance of Board members' functions. The expenses to be compensated include documented expenses for payment of air and railway tickets purchased for the member of the Board of Directors regardless of the travel class, and other expenses for traveling to the destination and back; representative expenses; accommodation costs; airport fees, commissions, costs of transfer to the airport or railway station at places of departure, destination or transfer.

10.3. The remuneration of a member of the Board of Directors and remuneration conditions shall be set forth in an agreement to be concluded between the Company and the member of the Board of Directors in accordance with the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

10.4. In case of early termination of powers of the members of the Board of Directors the amount of remuneration due shall be determined proportionally to the actual time of performance of their duties.

10.5. The compensations shall be payable within ten (10) days from the submission of the application for compensation payment and all the required supporting documents.

10.6. The General Meeting of Shareholders may consider the payment of remunerations and compensations to members of the Board of Directors for performing their duties as a separate item on the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders or as part of the item on profit distribution based on the results of the reporting year.

11. FINAL PROVISIONS

11.1. This Regulation on the Board of Directors as well as any and all addenda and amendments hereto shall be approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

11.2. Proposals on amendments and supplements hereto shall be made in the manner set forth in the Charter for including proposals in the agenda of an annual or extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

to the Regulation on the Board of Directors of PJSC LSR Group

INDEPENDENCE CRITERIA FOR MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF PJSC LSR GROUP

This Regulation establishes the independence criteria for members of the Board of Directors, including, without limitation, affiliation criteria and essence thereof.

1. A substantial shareholder of the Company is a person who has a direct or indirect right (through persons under his control), independently or together with other persons, connected with him/her by an agreement for confidential management of the property, and/or ordinary partnership, and/or instruction, and/or shareholder agreement, and/or any other agreement, the subject of which is the exercise of the rights certified by the shares in the Company, to dispose of 5 or more percent of votes attributable to voting shares constituting the authorized capital of the Company.

A group of companies that includes such substantial shareholder of the Company means legal entities controlled by the substantial shareholder of the Company and / or legal entities controlled by a person controlling the substantial shareholder (including the substantial shareholder and/or a person controlling the substantial shareholder).

2. A substantial contractor of the Company is a person who is a party to a contract (contracts) with the Company, the scope of obligations pursuant to which at the present time or the scope of obligations met pursuant to which during the last year amount(s/ed) to 2 or more percent of the carrying amount of the consolidated assets of the Company or of this person on the reporting date, preceding the moment of evaluation of the significance of the contractor, or 2 or more percent of the consolidated revenue (proceeds) of the Company or of this person for the completed calendar year, preceding the moment of evaluation of the substantiality of the contractor. If the contractor does not have a consolidated financial report, the contractor's accounting report can be used for comparison.

3. Affiliates of a physical person are: spouse, parents, children, adopters, adoptees, full or half brothers and sisters, grandmothers and grandfathers, and any other persons living together with the particular physical person and keeping a common household with him/her.

4. A person affiliated with the Company must be considered as such if he/she and/or his/her affiliates:

1) are or in the course of the last 3 years were members of executive bodies or employees of the Company, an organization under the control of the Company and/or management entity of the Company;
